Objects of Vanity Workshop - Demo with Robyn Carlson 4pm-5pm

The pocket seems like such a simple and humble feature. A hidden, yet secure place within one's clothing to conveniently hold and keep items with you as you go about your daily life.

In the 17th century people often shared a bedroom and furniture, a pocket was the only private and safe place to store small personal possessions. You will make a small purse or reticule.

Fabulous feathers! 30 min workshop 5pm with Kim Sweet

Learn the basics of how to draw feathers, and get a taster of one of the wonderful Natural History Illustration courses run by the Lifelong Learning team, Aberystwyth University.

Claydays 40 mins 5-5.15-6pm with Allison Pierse

Do you love the Great Pottery Throw Down? A mini workshop experiencing clay. We will make a small owl. This is the first thing Keith Brymer Jones made!
