

Dear Church Family,

The weather may dampen our efforts outside tonight; therefore, we are watching the weather, and a last-minute decision will be made.

However, the activities inside for our children will continue as previously planned.

For now, we will pray for God's will for this night and rest knowing He is always working for our good and His glory.

With love,

GLCB